BUNGAREE: the First Australian
OPEN DAY CELEBRATIONS
at Balmoral Beach & Mosman Art Gallery
Saturday 1st September 2012

Join us for a day celebrating Aboriginal art and culture.

The Bungaree Open Day starts with an Ancient Whale Dreaming Ceremony of the Yuin and Gadigal people at Balmoral Beach at daybreak, followed by a range of activities at Mosman Art Gallery. Hear talks by exhibition curator Djon Mundine and meet the participating artists. Kids join in the fun of creating your own Cornet hat – the best one wins a prize! Hear Peter McKenzie perform ‘The Ballad of Bungaree’. You might even meet Bungaree himself!

OPEN DAY HIGHLIGHTS

at BALMORAL BEACH

5.30am – 8.00am: Ancient Whale Dreaming Ceremony of the Yuin & Gadigal people at Balmoral Beach. Join in a celebration the rising of Grandfather (the Sun) and the singing up of Guruwal (the Whale). The greeting of the Sun is to celebrate the first day of the rest of our lives. The Whale Dreaming Ceremony is for the safety of whales that are carrying their young North and to give them safe passage – the whales were once tribal people and are following ancient songlines. The ceremony will be led by Uncle Max Harrison, an elder of the Yuin people.
