Local artistic talent on show at Mosman Art Gallery

Mosman Art Gallery is pleased to present an exhibition of new work by members of the Mosman Art Society from 2-24 November 2019. The exhibition titled Through the Eyes of Many will showcase 71 artworks by 71 artists, in a variety of mediums including painting, drawing, print-making and sculpture.

Initiated by four Mosman artists Joan Murcell, George Soutter, Carolyn Boatman and Rosemary Christmas in 1995, the Mosman Art Society has gone from strength to strength and now has over 130 members. The Society is entirely run by volunteers and is made up of professional and skilled amateur artists, and students. Members come from all over Sydney, with different backgrounds and unite in the love and passion of art, which has long been part of the rich artistic heritage of Mosman.

The Society was established not only to unite artists but to also foster community spirit and to contribute to the understanding and advancement of artists by donating to many art prizes and helping charitable events. Over the past 24 years, the group has held around 50 exhibitions, each year in various locations in Mosman, Neutral Bay and North Sydney. Through the Eyes of Many is the tenth Mosman Art Society exhibition at Mosman Art Gallery.

The exhibition will be officially opened by writer, former ABC journalist and former Labor politician Maxine McKew on Friday 1 November, 6.30pm.
