Can I submit an unframed artwork on paper?

If your artwork on paper (e.g. drawing, print or photograph) is not framed it must be mounted on foam core board which is a lightweight material available from art supply stores and some office supply stores. Artworks may be rejected due to poor presentation, or inability to be hung/displayed properly.

How do I make my work ready for hanging?

Please ensure that your work has TWO d-rings. We use a track wire hanging system which means we require ALL works to have d-rings on them. Not sure how to install d-ring, please watch this video.

My artwork has multiple parts. Can I enter?

Yes, as long as together the total area does not exceed the maximum size of 2 metres² and the layout is clearly presented.

My work was produced prior to 28 April 2022. Can I enter it in the 2023 Prize?

No – only artworks completed after 28 April 2022 can be entered into the 2023 Prize.

I would like to enter a video work. What format should the video be in?

The video should be submitted on a USB and should be no longer than 10 minutes.

I can't make it into the Gallery on Friday 28 April. Can I bring my artwork to the Gallery another time?

No, every artwork must arrive on Friday 28 April (8.30am-6.00pm) with two printed copies of the online entry ticket, in order for your artwork to be ready for judging. You can arrange a family member, teacher or friend to deliver the artwork on your behalf.

How do I print the entry form?

The Trybooking website refers to the online entry form as a 'ticket'. Once you have completed the online entry form and payment, you will have the option to print the ticket immediately (click on the yellow 'Download Tickets' button) or you can find your ticket attached to the confirmation email. Please print TWO copies of the entry ticket.

I have submitted the online entry form but I'm not sure if it's worked. What should I do?

Once you have completed all the details on the 'Ticket Holder Information' page, agreed to the declaration and clicked on the 'Next' button, you are then taken to the 'Checkout'. After you have completed this page and clicked on the 'Purchase' button, you will then see a message on a new screen saying 'Transaction successful'. If you do not see this message, your entry was not successfully submitted. If this is the case, check that you have entered all the required fields (questions with a red asterisk).

If your entry form was submitted successfully, you will receive a confirmation email with a link to your online entry form ('Tickets'). If you do not receive the email please check your 'Junk' or 'Spam' folder in your email. If you still did not receive the confirmation email or are having trouble submitting the online entry form please contact the Gallery on (02) 9978 4186.

Should I attach the entry form to the back of my artwork?

No. Please keep the two copies of your entry ticket separate to your artwork. However, all entries should be clearly labelled on the back with name of artist, title, price (if for sale), category entered, address and phone number.

I made a mistake on my entry form. What should I do?

Do not submit another (corrected) entry. Please contact the Gallery on (02) 9978 4186 prior to artwork receipting day (28 April) and staff will make the necessary changes to the online entry form.

When will I find out if my artwork has been accepted for exhibition?

Selected entries will appear on the Gallery website after 5pm on Wednesday 3 May

When will the Prize winners be announced?

Prize winners will be announced at the opening Saturday 6 May. They will also be published on the website after the announcement.

When do I collect my artwork?

Artworks not selected for exhibition must be collected from Mosman Art Gallery on either Thursday 4 May, Friday 5 May and Sunday 7 May (8.30am-5.00pm). Artworks which are selected for exhibition can be collected between Tuesday 6 June – Thursday 8 June (8.30am-5.00pm).

Please contact (02) 9978 4186 if you have arranged for a courier to collect your artwork. Artworks not collected will be disposed of.

I am not able to collect my work at the times stipulated above. Can I arrange to collect it at another time?

Due to the high volume of entries received each year and limited storage space within the Gallery, all works need to be collected during the dates listed above and in the Prize Terms & Conditions. You can arrange a family member, friend or teacher to collect the work on your behalf.
